Procedures Regarding Eligibility

The department chair is responsible for making certain that there is an annual informal review of the status of each faculty member in the department with regard to his/her time at rank and step. (See Normal Time in Step Chart below). Cases of possible eligibility for merit increase or promotion shall be examined (APM 220-80-b) and a Proposed Academic Action Report is due to the Academic Affairs Office by May 2, 2022. Faculty are eligible for advancement or promotion each year, however, advancement usually occurs in conjunction with completion of normal time in step. After the required consultation with members of the faculty, a department may recommend one of the following actions detailed in APP 3-40: Types of Action.

* On this campus, the normal period of service at the rank of Assistant Professor is six years. (The maximum allowable period of service may not exceed eight years under the Eight-Year Rule. See APM 133.) The normal period of service at a given step is two years.

Departments are required to review each faculty member at the Associate or Full ranks who is at normal time in step and to make a recommendation for or against advancement. Departments are required to review each faculty member at the Assistant rank who is at or above normal time in step and to make a recommendation for or against advancement. Assistant Professors cannot defer. Because there is no specified normal time at Professor Step V and above, service at these steps maybe of indefinite duration, however will require a Fifth Year Review (APM-200). Advancement to Steps VI, VII, VIII, and IX usually will not occur until at least three years of service at the lower step. Advancement to Above-Scale usually will not occur until at least four years of service at Step IX. See APP-1-12: Academic Personnel Review Process for further detail.
